THE PROGRAM: The program is designed to introduce young actors to the language, stories, characters, and ideas in Shakespeare's plays in imaginative and playful ways. Classes incorporating voice, movement, and acting enable students to explore Shakespeare's text emotionally, physically, and intellectually. Students will then create a performance piece based on their experience of the play, which they will share with family, friends, and Company members on the final day of the session. Hours: Monday - Friday, 9:00am-3:00pm.

TRANSPORTATION: Students should be dropped off each morning between 8:45 and 8:55am, and should be picked up promptly at 3:00pm.

Students must bring a lunch, a snack, and something to drink; refreshments will not be available for purchase. A celebratory pizza lunch will be provided on Friday of the first week for any who wish to participate.
