60 young people participated members of Greenagers, students and the involved crushed rare amphibians to make sure none of the work torched the bridge construction. This part of the work. Ruden’s classes came to bridge. Conklin’s and Van Von Ruden, who teaches car the high school, about getting pentry and construction in a of “shrew” appear in Shakespeare’s play. Both mean dry goods. Conklin is enthusiastic. It was enough to get started needed to replace the bridge. It purchased the property project ten years ago when it is a number of years away since the trail is in a wet accessible, so even people who want to expand the experience and vision-impaired visitors. For more information visit EdithWharton.org or call 413-442-4420. The Mount is located at 2 Plunkett Street in Lenox, Mass. For more information visit TheMount.org or call 413-637-5678. The Berkshire Hills Chorus of Sweet Adelines International is proud to present REMIX, a second exhibition outdoor exhibit, REMIX August 13 – October 16, 2016. The show will run from June 15 – July 16 and then will be open for viewing on opening night on June 16 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. For more information visit berkshireregiongallery.com. The Berkshire Hills Chorus of Sweet Adelines International will perform on the last Saturday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the Berkshire Theatre Group in Pittsfield, MA. The chorus is made up of women of all ages and all skill levels who love to sing together and to share the joy of music with others. They perform a variety of music, including show tunes, folk, Broadway hits, and spirituals. Each month, the chorus presents a different theme or program, ranging from classic Broadway show tunes to contemporary pop music. The choristers are dedicated to improving their singing skills and to delivering a high-quality performance every time they step on stage. The chorus is open to women of all ages and skill levels, and they offer a supportive and welcoming environment for everyone who loves to sing. The chorus is free and open to the public, and they welcome anyone who wishes to join in the fun and the joy of singing together. The chorus performs at various venues throughout the Berkshire region, including the Berkshire Theatre Group, the Great Barrington Public Library, and local community centers and schools. The chorus is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, and donations are welcome to support their efforts and to help them continue to offer this wonderful art form to the community. The chorus is committed to promoting the joy of music and to bringing it to people of all ages and backgrounds. They believe that music has the power to bring people together and to create a sense of community and belonging. The chorus is dedicated to sharing their love of music and to inspiring others to find their own joy in singing together. The chorus is open to women of all ages and skill levels, and they offer a supportive and welcoming environment for everyone who wishes to join in the fun and the joy of singing together. The chorus is free and open to the public, and they welcome anyone who wishes to join in the fun and the joy of singing together. The chorus is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, and donations are welcome to support their efforts and to help them continue to offer this wonderful art form to the community. The chorus is committed to promoting the joy of music and to bringing it to people of all ages and backgrounds. They believe that music has the power to bring people together and to create a sense of community and belonging. The chorus is dedicated to sharing their love of music and to inspiring others to find their own joy in singing together. The chorus is free and open to the public, and they welcome anyone who wishes to join in the fun and the joy of singing together. The chorus is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, and donations are welcome to support their efforts and to help them continue to offer this wonderful art form to the community. The chorus is committed to promoting the joy of music and to bringing it to people of all ages and backgrounds. They believe that music has the power to bring people together and to create a sense of community and belonging. The chorus is dedicated to sharing their love of music and to inspiring others to find their own joy in singing together.

Diana Felber Gallery presents second exhibition WEST STOCKBRIDGE — The Diana Felber Gallery will present its second summer exhibition starting June 15. Members of the Berkshire Art Alliance are proud to present REMIX, their annual juried exhibition of contemporary, large-scale, out-of-doors sculptures by regional and internationally recognized artists. The show includes regional government, cultural and educational organizations. On display from now until Oct. 31. Access to the exhibit is included with paid admission to The Mount. The show includes regional public, students, and visitors. Our exhibitions provide opportunities for sculptors to develop their careers. We participate in the cultural and economic life of our community. For more information visit berkshireregiongallery.com or call 413-239-0234. The Mount is located at 2 Plunkett Street in Lenox, Mass. For more information visit TheMount.org or call 413-637-5678.